

Isaiah 49:1-6

Listen to me, you coastlands.

Pay attention, you faraway peoples!

The Lord called me from the womb.

When I was inside my mother, he mentioned my name.

²He made my mouth like a sharpened sword.

He hid me in the shadow of his hand.

He made me a polished arrow.

He concealed me in his quiver.

³He said to me, "You are my servant Israel,
in whom I will display my glory."

⁴But I said to myself, "I have labored in vain.

I spent my strength and came up empty, with nothing.

Yet a just verdict for me rests with the Lord,

and my reward is with my God."

⁵But now the Lord,

who formed me from the womb to be his servant,

to turn Jacob back to him,

so that Israel might be gathered to him,

so that I will be honored in the eyes of the Lord,

because my God has been my strength—

⁶the Lord said:

It is too small a thing that you should just be my servant

to raise up only the tribes of Jacob and to restore the ones I have preserved in Israel, so I will appoint you to be a light for the nations,

so that my salvation will be known to the end of the earth.

Our Mission is to glorify God by growing in the Word, enabling us to reach, preach, teach, and share Christ's saving truth with all people.

Communion Trinity Lutheran practices the Bible teaching of "close communion". This means that those who are "close-knit" by a common confession of faith should properly commune together. If you are visiting from a fellow WELS or ELS congregation, we invite you to join us in Holy Communion. Please speak to pastor before the service. If you are visiting from another denomination, we respectfully request you to refrain from communing at this time. If you have any questions or desire to discuss what God teaches about this precious sacrament, please ask. We are eager to hear and share over an open Bible.

Families With Children

Our congregation enjoys the "worshiping family." Parent's with small children are an important part of God's kingdom. That's why children are never viewed as an inconvenience to our worship. We also want your family to be comfortable. If you need a moment, there is a cry room out the main doors and to the left.

Mission Fest-January 21

On January 21st Matthew Doering, will be presenting to us on his recent visit to Mexico with one of WELS 1LA (Latin America team) missionaries. Please join us between services to listen to highlights from WELS ongoing efforts to sow Gods Word in mission fields across the globe. There will be a door offering to help support the 1LA mission field.
