Joyce Schmidt was called home to heaven on April 23rd. The funeral took place at church with the burial following at Trinity Cemetery.

“Jesus said to her, ‘I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me will live, even if he dies. And whoever lives and believes in me will never perish.’”

-John 11:25-26

On Mother's Day, Sunday May 12th, we will be having a freewill door offering for New Beginnings– A Home For Mothers. “The mission of New Beginnings is to help a single mother develop spiritually in God's Word, become a responsible citizen in society, continue her education, achieve self-sufficiency and be a competent and loving Christian parent.”

Please consider a donation.

A photograph of wooden church pews, viewed from a low angle looking down a row. The pews are made of light-colored wood and have dark-colored cushions. The background is slightly blurred, emphasizing the rows of pews. Overlaid on the image is white text.

Please leave the pews in the back available for families with small children.

Thank You!

Please be considerate of others and turn off your electronic devices
during the church service!

Thank you for worshipping with us!

We are excited to announce that Mrs. Katie Augustine has accepted the call to teach 2nd-4th grades at Trinity starting next school year!

Please continue to pray for her family as they make the plans necessary for this transition.

Praise be to God!
